

Patricia Ann Cotter

January 26, 1930 - February 1, 2017

Patricia Ann "Nannie" Cotter (nee Shearer), of Narberth, passed on to Glory February 1, 2017, just days after her 87th birthday. After years of physical challenges, she now is whole and freed from suffering. At home now in the presence of her savior, Jesus Christ, and daughter, Jayne Ann Pile, she waits to be joined by her husband of 62 years, Howard F. Cotter III, daughters Susan Cotter Plummer (Richard) and Helenselene Purring (John), grandchildren Patricia (Tim Glass), Sarah, Christian, Maranatha, Daniel, Hannah, and Samuel, and great-grandchild Jethro. Patricia graduated from Lower Merion High School and University of Pennsylvania, taught in the Philadelphia school district, ran the East Coast Fire Equipment company with her husband for nearly 50 years, was an active member of United Methodist Church of Narberth for many years, she loved the shore, butterflies, sewing, reading, and was never at a loss for an idiom or an opinion, but her greatest love was for her family. Her Funeral Service will be held on Saturday February 4, 11 AM in the Chapel of Peace at the West Laurel Hill, Bala Cynwyd, PA Memorial contributions may be made in her memory to Whosoever Gospel Mission, 101 E Chelton Ave, Philadelphia, PA 19144.
