

Patricia "Tricia" O'Connor

November 5, 1955 - April 28, 2026

Patricia "Tricia" O'Connor passed away on April 28th, 2026 peacefully in her home. She was born on November 5, 1955 and lived a life defined by generosity, curiosity, and an unmistakable warmth.

Raised in Philadelphia, she had a deep love for all things Irish, shaped in part by her time spent living in Ireland during her younger years, and carried that spirit of culture, storytelling, and connection with her throughout her life.

Tricia dedicated her career to education as a special education teacher at George Washington High School in Philadelphia, where she made a lasting impact on her students through her patience, advocacy, and unwavering belief in their potential. In addition to her work in the classroom, she served as a swim coach, where she was known not just for building strong athletes, but for being a mentor and enthusiastic cheerleader to all who knew her.

Outside of her professional life, Tricia found joy in traveling, cooking, reading, and, most of all, bringing people together. Whether on the beaches of Punta del Este, Uruguay or along the Jersey Shore, she was always in search of sunshine, good times, and great company. She had a natural gift for entertaining, creating spaces where people felt welcome, seen, and celebrated. It wasn't uncommon to hear her share a cheerful "Sláinte" or a spirited "Go Birds!"—small but unmistakable reflections of her enthusiasm and love for life. Whether through a thoughtfully prepared meal, a shared story, or a simple moment of laughter, Tricia had a way of turning the everyday into something joyful and memorable.

She is survived by her mother, Margaret O'Connor; her siblings, Peg Cherney, Kathy Shields, Bill O'Connor, Joe O'Connor, and Ann Senski; and her beloved nieces and nephews, who brought her immense pride and joy. She was a devoted daughter, sister, aunt, and friend, and her presence will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Her Funeral Mass will be held at St Christopher's Catholic Church in Somerton, PA on Monday, May 18th at 10:30am.

Tricia will be remembered for her kindness, her spirit, and the countless lives she uplifted through her encouragement, humor, and love.
