

Patricia T. Carson

April 28, 1933 - March 26, 2007

Patricia T. Carson, 73, of Bryn Mawr, a retired nurse and homemaker, died suddenly at home on March 26.

Mrs. Carson, a native of New York State, was a graduate of The Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania School of Nursing. She was a long-time volunteer at Ludington Public Library and served for seven years as the chairperson of the Board of Trustees.

She recently celebrated her 50th wedding anniversary with her husband, Dr. John S. Carson. In addition to her husband, she is survived by her children, Lynn Hepp, Robert Carson and Kathleen Griffel, and her grandchildren, Julie Hepp, Kelly Carson, Madison Carson, Samantha Griffel, David Griffel and Steven Griffel. She is also survived by her brother, Robert Teetsell.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday March 31 at 12 noon at The First Presbyterian Church of Ardmore, 5 W. Montgomery Avenue, Ardmore.

Internment is private.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Ludington Public Library, 5 S. Bryn Mawr Avenue, Bryn Mawr, PA 19010 in her memory.

“ Dear Dr. Carson,
*I was so shocked and saddened when Lynn called me last night to tell me of Mrs. Carson's death. I loved stopping by to visit with you both and Mrs. Carson will be missed by all. The neighborhood will certainly not be the same and she leaves an emptiness in all of our hearts which will never be filled. With love and saddened heart,
