

Philip R. Anewalt

April 12, 1920 - November 18, 2009

Philip R. Anewalt, formerly of Rosemont Presbyterian Village died on Nov. 18, 2009 in Broomall Presbyterian Village. He was born in Reading, PA, where he lived most of his life and was a very proud Veteran, serving during World War II as Captain in the US Army and fought in the Battle of the Buldge. He was called to duty again during the Korean War and was discharged honorably. Husband of the late Martha B. Anewalt. He is survived by 2 stepchildren, Joanie B. Keller and P. Bailey Jamison III along with 6 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren. His Service and Interment will be private. If so desired, contributions may be made to Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church in his memory.