“ I just found out today (Nov. 12, 2014) about Robert's passing. I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. I met Bob in 1979, when he introduced me to the hobby of collecting world paper money. He was passionate about it through the years, as I also became. We kept in touch frequently over the years, meeting to check out each other's newest acquisitions. A couple times we went to paper money conventions together. He talked a lot about his family, although I never had the occasion to meet any one. I will truly miss him. He was one of the good guys.
