“ Dear Barbara, Ron and Brian and families,

My heartfelt Condolences and Sympathies are with each of you. I will always remember Bob as the sharpest wit in the room, and the one with the best stories. He filled a room with his enthusiastic greeting, inviting smile and always, a grip of pure steel to seal the hello. Christmas's growing up were always made into tradition by having your family with us. Loving memories.

Thank you Mike - it is very comforting to read this from you. Our families have always been connected and always will be. There are many loving memories and it will be impossible to replace Dad's wit, stories and enthusiasm.
