Roger was born in 1930 in Winthrop, MA, the youngest of four sons of Martin and Hazel Swanson. He was pre-deceased by his brothers, Richard, Ralph, and Robert. He grew up in Winchester, MA, on the Mystic Lakes, and graduated from Winchester High School (1948). They shared a love of golf, travel, dancing and time at their favorite getaways at Hemlock Farms, Wingaersheek Beach, and Vero Beach. They were active members of the Mountainside Presbyterian Church each serving in leadership roles. Roger was a proud father and grandfather to his four children and ten grandchildren, offering enthusiastic support, sage advice and loving guidance to their lives. Roger loved sports and competition. He grew up playing tennis, was an accomplished sailor and an avid golfer. Plus, family skiing was a challenge he enthusiastically accomplished in his 40's to spend more time with his children. He enjoyed any and all forms of competition from rounds of golf with friends, to weekend sailing races, to board games with the family. He also loved all the Boston and Harvard sports teams and was a passionate and vocal fan throughout his life.
