

Rose Brown

January 9, 1933 - September 22, 2016

Rose Brown, of Bala Cynwyd, PA, died on September 22, 2016. Born in Baltimore, MD, she was a resident of Tarrytown, NY and White Plains, NY for many years before moving to the Philadelphia area. Rose was the loving mother of Dean, Robert, Aileen and Patrick. Whenever she was complimented on one of her children, she always replied that she was proud of all of her children. She was a gracious Mother-in-law to Maureen, Jackie, Todd and Lynn. She often traveled to visit her grandchildren in San Francisco (Erica, Zack and Alex) and Rochester, NY (Matt, Greg and Noah), and always enjoyed a visit from Dan, Conor and John when they would come to see her. She also loved to see pictures and video of her Great-Grandson Benton. Rose was formerly married to George Brown, who survives her; later she enjoyed spending time with Frank Ellis. Rose was the sixth child of John and Rose Metzbower; she was preceded in death by her sister Mary and brothers John, Jim, Bill, and Frank. She is survived by her younger brother Ed (Nick). Rose was an accomplished baker and her Mission Tea Room and her famous "chocolate" cake will be missed by all. She loved to dine out with friends and family and was a huge New York Giants fan. Calling hours will be held at Chadwick & McKinney Funeral Home, Ardmore, PA on Thursday, September 29th from 6-8 pm. A funeral Mass will be held on September 30th at 10:00 am at St. Colman's Church; Ardmore, PA. Her ashes will be interred with her parents at New Cathedral Cemetery, Baltimore, MD, on Saturday, October 1st at 12:30 pm.
