“ Dear Lisa, Richard and family, I learned from Ted Goldsboro of your Mom's passing and wanted to send my love and sympathy. You might remember that your Mom and I had dated briefly when you lived at Montgomery Ct Apartments. She also baby sat for Bill and Phyllis Crockett in Narberth Park where our family lived. We were in LM class of '56 and kept in touch when she lived in Chesterbrook and at class reunions. When she moved back to the family house on Wynnedale Road, Ted and I wanted to visit but unfortunately, it did not work out. Take care and thank you for this opportunity to writ this, John Davis
