

Scott D. Morrison

April 5, 1961 - February 14, 2016

Scott Douglas Morrison, age 54, passed away peacefully of natural causes in his home in Newtown Square, PA on Sunday February 14th. Born April 5, 1961 in Tarrytown, NY to Joan Marie and Donald Alan Morrison, Scott was raised in CT with brothers David and Todd. After graduating Cornell's School of Hospitality, Scott launched a passionate lifelong career in the restaurant business. After starting out at the Pierre Hotel, Scott opened several restaurants in NYC. After moving to the Philadelphia area, he went on to open a number of notable restaurants on the Main Line and more recently in Wilmington, DE. In 1997 Scott married Jennifer Lynn Wallace in Montauk, NY. Scott and Jen raised three children, Kim age 30, Braxton age 18 and Helena age 14. Scott is predeceased by his wife Jen, and survived by their three children. His Memorial Service will be held on Sat. Feb. 20th at 11AM in the Class of 1944 Chapel at Episcopal Academy, 1785 Bishop White Dr., Newtown Square, PA 19073. A private burial for family will precede the service. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to the Episcopal Academy Memorial Scholarship Fund.

“ Scott was my very first Boss at his little place on Park Ave South (Over the Counter) in NYC. He was a beautiful, close friend. What a great person, he always looked out for me. I am so sad and heartbroken to hear of his passing. I wish peace and strength to his children who were left behind, and to his family. He was a brilliant person and visionary.
He will be in my thoughts every single day.
Earl grey Tea with 2 equals! I will always remember that he drank that. :)
