“ I don't know if Sue thought of herself as a matriarch, but that is how I think of her. She left a legacy through her children and their families. I loved her smile and big laugh, and her sharp mind AND sharp wit. I will always be grateful for her support to me and my place in the family. And so grateful to Sue and Jimmy for their regular visits during my mother's hospice at home. The respite it gave me and my son, and their humor, love and support made all the difference during that difficult time. Sue, you are loved, live on in our memories, and will be missed.
