“ Barbara, I can't even begin to tell you how much I'll miss Tom. What a blessing to so many. The years we worked together in that Spectrum trailer will always be fond memories. Tom went out of his way to get me my first interview after college with Barry Frank at IMG! Our prayers are with you, Betsy, Linda and Tom Jr. God Bless,

“ My heart goes out to all of Brookies' family, friends and fans. He will sorely be missed. I can imagine what Jack Edelstein's eulogy would be like. Tom was a GREAT man. My sincere sympathy.

“ Dear Barbara,

Please accept my heartfelt sympathy for your loss. As one of Brookie's colleagues at Jackson Cross, I will always remember his smile, dapperness as a dresser, and the fact that he did not let his fame get in the way of asking how things were going...and remembering what someone may have mentioned to him. He is iconic. Unfortunately, I cannot attend the service on Monday, but I will be there in spirit. It is ironic that it is Super Bowl Sunday....Find strength and courage in your life with Tom and those who will support you now.##imported-begin##Tracy Schou##imported-end##

“ Barbara,

My deepest condolences. You probably do not remember me but I was your tour guide and accompanied you and Tom to Europe in 1969 for a WCAU station tour. You were both so kind and so much fun and I have such wonderful memories of that trip. My best to you and your family.##imported-begin##Ann Miller##imported-end##

“ Barbara: Brookie will be missed, not only in Philadelphia, but through out the Sports World. Bill Conlins's column on Tom, says it all. His easy way and humor, made him the perfect broadcaster.

Sorry for your loss,
