I met Denette years ago when the kids were little and we were both waiting in line for a show at the Haverford library. I remember thinking at the time what a nice young mother she was....and she had 2 beautiful sweet kids. I am devastated to hear this tragic news. I know how much he was loved as it was very evident that day. I will be praying for your family.

I met Trent at HHS and even though I did not know him well, anyone who met him could tell he was a lovable guy. Trent could make anyone laugh and he would always try to talk to the quiet kids to make them feel more comfortable. Trent will be missed by a lot of people he did not even know he had an impact on because he was that type of person.
