

Vincent James Blank

August 16, 1964 - January 12, 2021

The Blank and Boucher Families lost Vincent at age 56 on January 12, 2021.

Vincent J Blank was not only a caring big brother to John Blank but also to his friends around Pennsylvania and California. His Boy Scout years gave him that quality. He became a gentle giant with a jovial laugh. In the last few years he drove a cab around the Main Line and had a regular clientele that only wanted Vincent as their driver. I am sure if they asked Vincent where to go to get a good pizza, he would take them to Marrone's in Ardmore. We have to mention this, because it was always the first stop when flying home from California. Also, at Marrone's, chances are he would run into some of our large family with Ardmore roots.

Vincent lived in California for many years and returned to the Philadelphia area around ten years ago. In California, he worked for a Navy subcontractor in electronics and had a chance to travel the Country and the World. His greatest achievement in California was his son Dustin Binns-Blank and was a proud parent of his successful college graduate. Three thousand miles apart did not interfere with their family connection.

Vincent's Father, Bud was taken to Heaven at a young age and we like to think they are now together at an Irish/Scottish Pub up there, having a pint. CHEERS!
