“Vince was what we in the military call my Battle buddy. He kept in line and we helped each other through a lot. He said if i ever get around Bryn Mawr Pennsylvania to give him a shout. But I never got the chance. The biggest memory I have is when we went on bivouac and woke up the next day with about a foot of snow covering our shelter halves, and he said man I've got to pee but I am not going out there. Lol ! Vince I'll miss buddy, just don't make me salute you when it's my turn to go upstairs to heaven. Just I will ...
