“ My deepest condolences to Ronnie, William, and Christine on the passing of Warren.

He was a good family man, a dedicated fireman, and to me a good friend for many years. I shall always treasure the memories I had with him, Bobby and "the gang" especially in our younger days. And while many of our lives have changed over the years both personally and professionally, a friendship that did not change for 50 years is something for which I shall be forever thankful.
