

William A. Mulville III

October 3, 1943 - January 23, 2022

William A Mulville, III of Ardmore, PA, died on January 23, 2022 at Bryn Mawr Hospital at the age of 78. He was born in Philadelphia, PA to the late William A. Mulville, Jr. and Sara Dougherty. He attended Monsignor Bonner High School.

He was a Retired Radnor Police Officer, where he was honored at Police Office of the Year. He was a Retired Radnor School District bus driver and was Honorably discharge from the United States Navy.

He loved playing guitars and banjos; enjoyed painting...he was very creative; and loved watching football. He hated the beach, but loved visiting Cape May, NJ.

He was the husband of the late Teresa; and is survived by his domestic partner, Lynn Carvell; Daughter, Terri Mulville Johnson; Sons, Patrick James Mulville and William A. Mulville, IV,; Step-daughter Alexa Van Derryt; granddaughters, Madeleine Rose Johnson and Elizabeth "Max" Johnson; and sister, Catherine Stiebritz (Richard)

Previous Events

The family will receive guests

FEB 1. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (ET)

Chadwick & McKinney Funeral Home, Inc.
30 East Athens Avenue
Ardmore, PA 19003
(610) 642-6303

Funeral Service

FEB 1. 11:00 AM (ET)

Chadwick & McKinney Funeral Home, Inc.
30 East Athens Avenue
Ardmore, PA 19003
(610) 642-6303

Tribute Wall

“ Beautiful in Blue was purchased for the family of William A. Mulville III.

January 30, 2022 at 09:15 PM

“ The best of the best. We worked together a lot of years. Trust me he always had your back. He always made you feel at home anywhere.

Bill Bruno Retired Radnor PD.

Bill Bruno - January 28, 2022 at 02:06 PM

“ To the Mulville family blood and blue,

I worked with Billy at Radnor. He was always a calm and collected guy keeping us grounded. I want to extend my deepest condolences to all of Billy's family and friends.

Bob Castaldi

Robert J Castaldi - January 27, 2022 at 05:33 PM