

William George Henke

June 28, 1928 - October 12, 2009

William George Henke, 81, of Radnor, Pennsylvania and Pawleys Island, South Carolina died peacefully October 12, with his family at his side.

Born in Evansville, Indiana, he was the son of the late Kenneth and Mabel Henke. He was an Engineering Graduate of Purdue University in West Lafayette, Indiana.

After serving two years in the army with the Rocket and Guided Missile Program, he spent most of his business life in the industrial air pollution and nuclear power industries. He retired from Raytheon in 1993.

A lover of history, he enjoyed travelling and, together, with his wife, visited many countries in the world. An avid golfer, he was a long-time member of Merion Golf Club and, more recently, Caledonia Club in Pawleys Island.

Mr. Henke is survived by his beloved wife of 51 years, Berniedean I. Henke. He is also survived by a sister, June Tietzer of Ft. Myers, Florida. His two sons, Roger Henke (Janet) of Raleigh, North Carolina, and Russell Henke (Debbie) of Cincinnati, Ohio also survive him, along with five grandchildren, Colleen, Sarah, Katie, Ryan & Scott Henke.

A private memorial service will be held at Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church.

Tribute Wall

“ Condolences from Dave and Melanie Setzer to the Henke family during this time of sadness.##imported-begin##David Setzer##imported-end##

October 13, 2009 at 09:58 AM