“ Your dad, grandfather, and great grandfather is one of the most amazing people I've ever meet. He was a cousin of my father John Dosch. They grew up together on Lowrys Lane. He was a true gentleman and a presence that will be greatly missed. He always kept in touch by phone and just as recently as a week ago saturday I spoke with him. Your mom and dad were two of the most inspiring and beautiful people I have ever known.##imported-begin##Lois Dosch Fletcher & Family##imported-end##

“ "He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more" Job.7.10. "Father, I will that they also, whom Thou hast given Me, be with Me where I am" John17.24.

While we mourn the passing of Bill and the loss it entails, he has already set eyes upon his beloved Lord in the glory, the One of Whom he often said 'Marana tha'.

May you all as a family, know the blessedness of the presence and help of the God of all comfort. Walter.###imported-begin##Walter A. Boyd###imported-end##

“ Although no words can really help to ease the loss you all are bearing, just know that, although there is a great distance between us, you are all very close in every thought and prayer. Thinking back to the many Maritime visits with Uncle Bill and Aunt Elizabeth (and the boys!), family picnics at Centennial Park come to mind :) May all of your memories of Uncle Bill help you through this time. “ Greetings to all,

I would like to send you my love at this difficult time. There may be many miles between us however, you are in my heart and prayers during these sad times.

As a little girl. I was always excited when Uncle Bill and Aunt ELizabeth were coming for a visit. Each Christmas I looked forward to the Christmas card with a note and a tract, usually written by Uncle Bill. They will be missed.

Memories will help you over the next week, month and year ahead.

"But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus. Phil 4:19

“ It is with deep sadness that I learned of Bill's passing, here in New Zealand, on Saturday morning. He will be greatly missed as he sought to be a help to those in need. His thoughtfulness, care and consideration are truly lacking in this world and we will all the worse off for it in the days which lie ahead, should our Lord keep 'away'. Please be assured of my love to you all, and constant prayers you will all be upheld at this most difficult of times. With every blessing and comfort only He can give.
