

Winifred L. Holeman

May 6, 1927 - April 24, 2015

“The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want” Psalm 23:1

Winifred Lavera Holeman peacefully entered into eternal rest on Friday April 24, 2015 at Bryn Mawr Hospital in Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania. She was born in Person County, North Carolina on May 6, 1927. Best known as “Aunt Freddie”, she was the ninth of twelve children given to the union of the late Lottie Holloway Clay and the late Alexander “Zan” Clay, Jr.

Winifred’s strong and abiding faith manifests as calm peacefulness and gentle loving care. She was raised as a member of Allens Chapel AME Church. She was married on June 15, 1957 to Andrew Holeman and transferred her membership to Zion Hill Baptist Church, in order to jointly worship with him. In countless ways, Aunt Freddie’s life was devoted to broadly and strongly encouraging family unity, support and togetherness. In her early 70’s to early 80’s, she lived in Baltimore, Maryland in order to give her life as loving care to her daughter. During this time away from the Zion Hill congregation, her husband dutifully provided her support – spiritually and in every other way.

Left to cherish her memory are her husband: Andrew “Tee” Holeman of Ardmore, PA; one daughter: Andrea Lavera Holeman of Ardmore, PA; one daughter-in-law: Jeanne Lipscomb Holeman of Ardmore, PA; two sons: Wayne Dorwin Holeman of Virgilina, VA, and Brian Deland Holeman of Ardmore, PA; one sister: Virginia Clay Williams of Auburn, AL; one brother: Amos Godfrey Clay of Toldeo, OH; two sisters-in-law: Blanche Clay of Roxboro, NC and Shirley Clay of Toledo, OH; four grandsons: Evan, Jared, Tristan and Bricen; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
